Published by the American Peace Society since 1834, World Affairs is the oldest journal of foreign policy studies in the United States. It features articles on the history of the Cold War, peacekeeping, and the fate of democracy, specifically in the developing countries. It also emphasizes recent diplomatic history, documentation and review articles of books that have appeared in foreign languages but are not likely to see an early English translation.

The journal's executive editor is Mark Falcoff of the American Enterprise Institute.
